Distance Learning Library Services Policy

Louis L. Manderino Library
California University of PA
California, PA

California University of Pennsylvania students enrolled in Web-based courses and faculty teaching Web-based courses will receive library services equivalent to those received by students and faculty located on the main campus. Equivalent library services are also available to students and faculty from Southpointe and the Pittsburgh Center or any other University off-campus location.

Distance learning students and faculty can access the resources of the Manderino Library by visiting the Library’s Web page. Distance learning students and faculty may receive reference assistance, library instruction, document delivery & limited interlibrary loan, and access to electronic course reserves. For more about distance learning library services, go to the Distance Learning page (http://www.library.cup.edu/distance.html). Always check the Library’s Web page for the most up-to-date information regarding library services for distance learning students and faculty.

Reference service may be obtained by calling the Distance Learning/Government Documents Librarian at 724-938-4451, Monday through Friday, 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM, EST, or by completing the Reference Assistance Form found on the Distance Learning page of Manderino Library. Every attempt will be made to answer questions within 48 hours. Questions received over holidays and semester breaks will be answered upon return.

If you have special needs or any problems or suggestions, contact the Office of the Dean of Library Services at 724-938-4096.
